

FREE ENERGY FOR EVERYBODY! (Zero-point Energy)

I AM aware,
that space is holding energy,
even if unseen to me.
I CAN feel it
nourishing me.

I AM aware,
that this energy dwells within me
as well as it surrounds me.
I AM aware that my existence is rooted in this energy changeable, formless,
yet, still vibrating in matter.
I am connected with higher vibration now.

I am aware, that this free flowing energy is the main source of all existing energy, and this energy flows through me completely,
holding me and the entire universe together.
Some people call it Love.
Whatever its name may be
it can be used by a special procedure in order to give us
the amount of energy we need
in our daily lives
from now on supporting this beautiful planet, our beloved Mother-Earth, in any aspect.

I recognize this free Source, bound to the so called empty space,
as the source of all further energy production.
Used wisely from now on,
in total agreement with the elemental kingdoms and all the co-existent and co-creative forces and beings.
I accept the extraordinary opportunity of this awareness.
I create the praying field.

I seed and anchor this awareness into the mass collective consciousness of all human beings.
My intention drops upon fertile grounds.
I feel the relief of Mother Earth and the freedom of the people to utilize this inexhaustible source.

I feel the gratitude of Source about our willingness to receive.
I feel the joy of Source to be recognized.
I feel joy and freedom to grow further and further into the reality
of a free and peaceful world.

I feel my mind expanding and with it the mind of all people.

I realize the fading of past forces, which kept us from embracing freedom.
I feel the grasp loosening from all beings like wilted leafs falling off a tree.
I feel freedom and love.
I arise in joy to the dawn, of a new consciousness.
And, I dedicate myself to the power of love.
